

MOTORCLASSICA 2011 and RACV CITY TO COUNTRY CLUB RUN

Sunday, October 23 last was a day with plenty of activity to choose from if you are interested in cars of any kind. However, Colin and I opted for the RACV City to Country Club run, having promised ourselves that "one day" we would participate in one of the RACV outings! An added attraction of course, was that prior to the run we had the opportunity to visit the Motorclassica exhibition at the lovely Royal Exhibition building in Melbourne, before the public were admitted. Too good an opportunity to miss and one, which we were very glad, we'd taken.

The cars on display were absolutely magnificent (understatement!) and to say that we enjoyed seeing them is putting it mildly. I'm not even going to try to describe the cars as I admit to not being knowledgeable about them - I just like seeing them!

While watching others arriving as we waited for our admittance to the exhibition at 8.15 a.m., we were delighted to see other HCCV members also arriving - Ron and Lorraine; John and Judy; Fred with his friend, John; and Hugh and Jenny together with their son and his girlfriend

The journey to Healesville to the RACV Country Club luncheon was most enjoyable as the weather was perfect for the 50-plus year old cars. The vehicles participating represented quite a cross section of makes and models from motoring history. From the beams on the faces of folk as they arrived, it seemed to have been enjoyed by everyone (except of course, those unfortunate few whose vehicles let them down along the way). The lunch was delicious, the venue was most impressive, the company was good and all up it was a delightful day out.
