

All British Car Display, Launceston Tas ~ Ken Watts

After a wet few days leading up to it, the day of the Annual All British Car Display Day on the King's Birthday Long Weekend in June at the National Automobile Museum of Tasmania in Launceston started cloudy and looking ominously like another wet day.

I washed and chamoised down my Vogue Sports and thought well its only 15 minutes away from home so if it rains heavily, I will just come back home.

I was pleasantly surprised when the weather stayed fine and it turned out to be a great day even though display car numbers were down on last year, I think the look of the weather early deterred some from bringing out their cars.

The cars covered a huge range and included Minis and Morris Minors to Jaguars, MGs, Rolls Royces and even a very rare late model Aston Martin Rapide.

Mine was the only Humber though.

I always enjoy these days catching up with fellow enthusiasts from all over Tasmania and you always see cars that haven't appeared at shows before.
